FOREWORD

From the beginning man has watched the stars, the sun, and the moon, and their profound influence upon the earth. From awe came superstition, and then finally knowledge which has grown more and more sophisticated. A great deal of this knowledge has been based upon the fact that man is an integral part of the universe, and he too is affected by his surroundings.

Knowledge is power. The secret to all success is within us, simply waiting for us to grasp it and collect our birthright. No matter what our circumstances we can profit from more knowledge about ourselves.

You are more than you think or dream you are: Find your place among the stars.

"Sow an action, reap a habit;
Sow a habit, reap a character;
Sow a character, reap a destiny."
William James

MISS GAIL A. LEVY
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
LE DIABLE BLEU

EDITORIAL

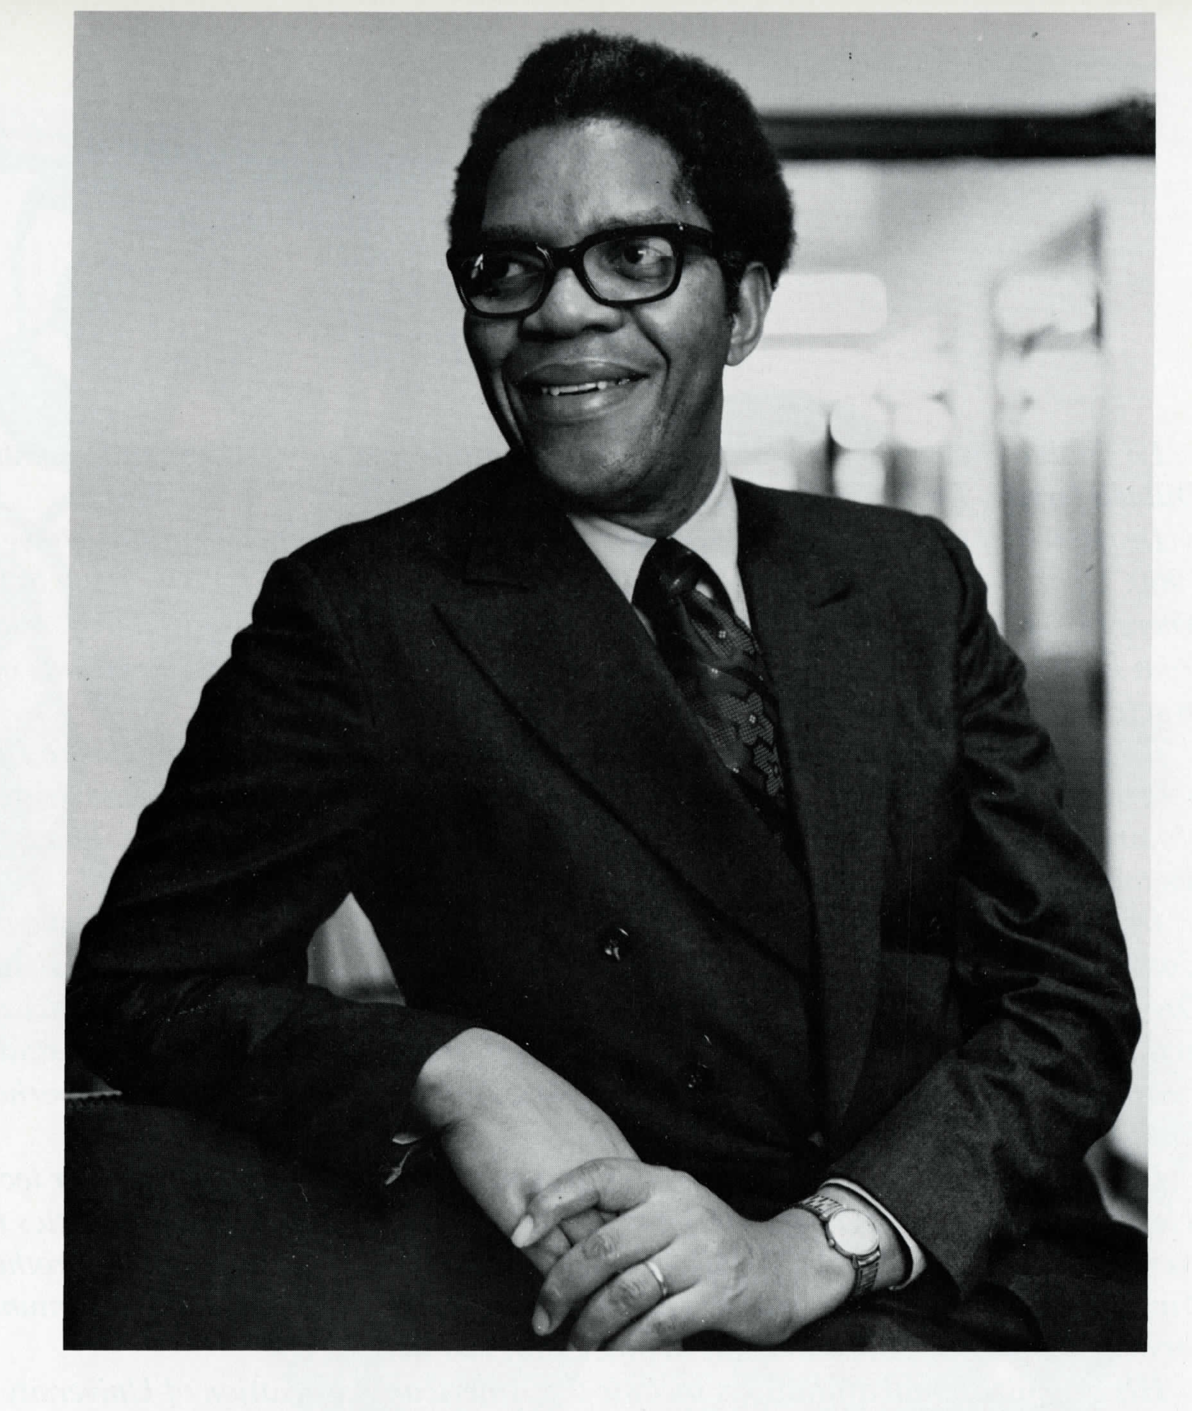

Le Diable Bleu in its 106th edition has made its 1975 arrival. This arrival has been made possible through a dedicated and laborious staff.

"A SIGN OF THE TIME — OUR PLACE AMONG THE STARS" is the appropriate theme for this edition. Le Diable Bleu is a "sign" of the many times shared by students at Dillard. These times were diverse; times of learning, times of excitement, times of victory, times of happiness and times of sorrow. Even though they have been consumed by the demands of time, they will always be revitalized in this edition of Le Diable Bleu.

Yet, in order for Le Diable Bleu to keep its place as one of the most respected and significant publications of Dillard, there must be a high degree of co-operation by the student body. For the success and quality of any task is determined by the time and energy put into it.

As the first female editor-in-chief it is evident that Dillard is keeping its place with the changing of times.

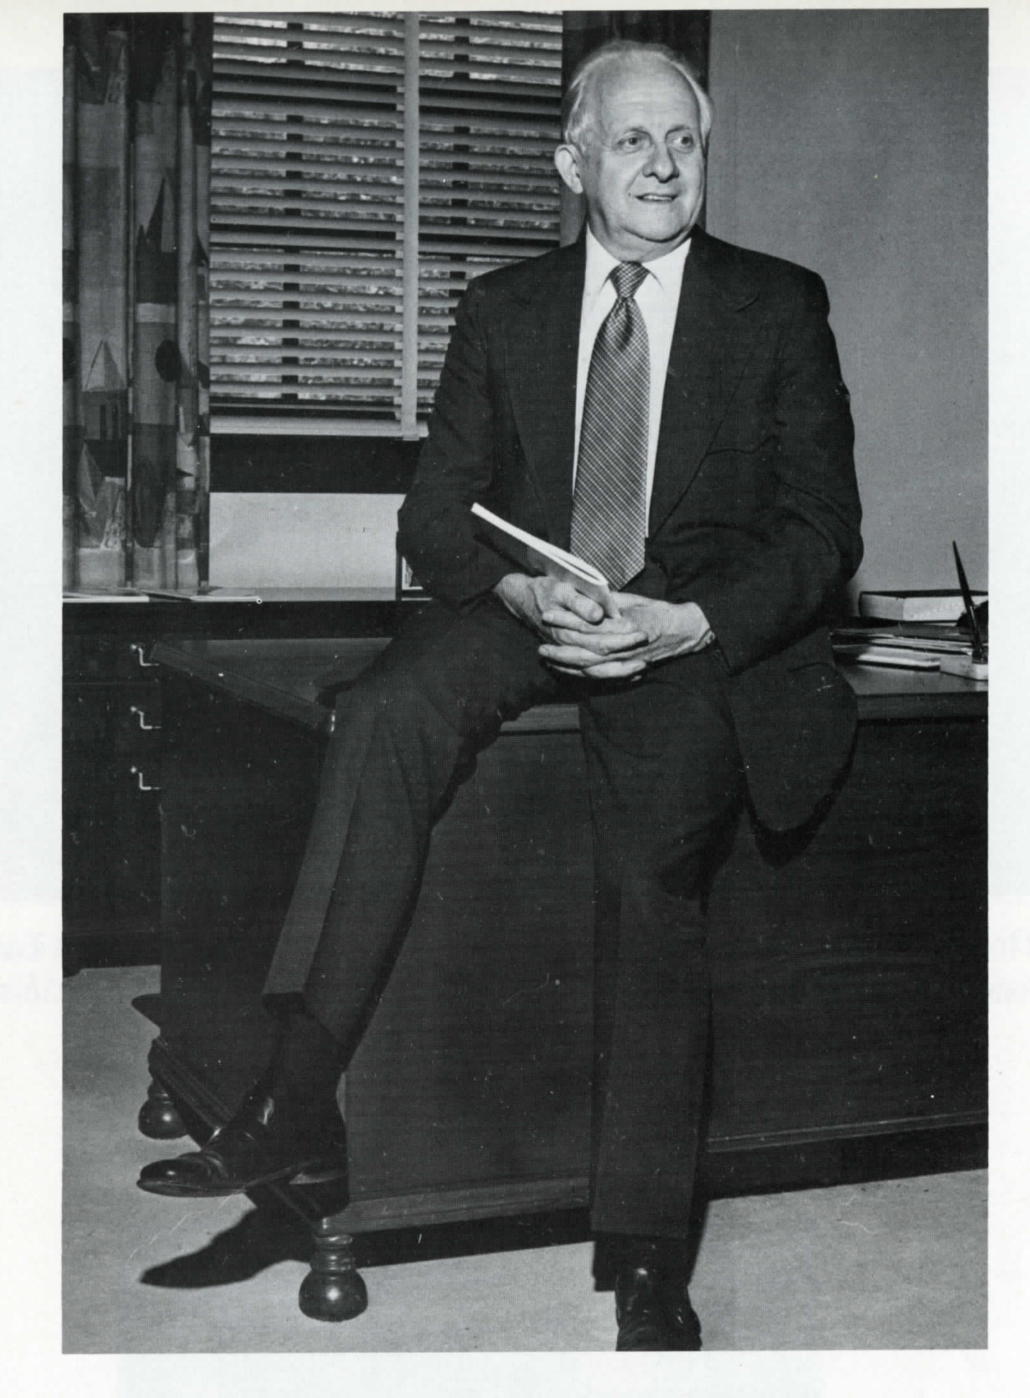

I would like to give a special thanks to Miss Debra Moran, Assistant Editor, who worked so closely with me in the preparation of Le Diable Bleu.

In the future, as in the past, we, at Dillard, must pay homage to the highest. Whatever we do and whatever we seek to accomplish must be governed by vision of, and commitment to, the highest ideals and impulses of the human mind and spirit. "Not failure," said Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, "but low aim is sin." At Dillard, it is imperative that we aim high, that we reach for the stars, that we "dream the impossible dream" and reach for "the unattainable goal." Higher possibilities are inexhaustible and always beckon. The ideal must be our lodestar. It must keep us restless, dissatisfied, haunted, and yearning and laboring for something better, higher, nobler, richer, fuller.

Both those who are leaving and those who are remaining are expected, always, to aim high and to be radically displeased with low performance and mediocrity. Complacency is a terrible defect. Only the highest — in intellect, character, and conduct — is worthy of the approval and sanction of Dillard. We must cling to the ideal even as we are embarrassed, yes, even condemned by it.

Samuel DuBois Cook

"Dillard University is dedicated to the development of competence and concern. The University's ultimate purpose is, therefore, to help human beings to become more human in Mind and Spirit and Society more humane. The goal is a Tomorrow far better than Today."

These words from the Dillard Bulletin represent fully my hopes for this graduating class and for all our students.

Acting Division Chairman

This is education? Wow!

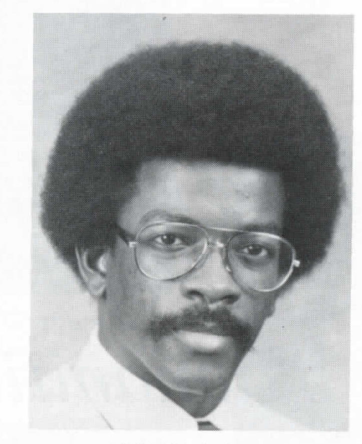

The Division considers its role in the institution to be threefold: 1) Preparation of elementary and secondary school teachers with a sound education in the liberal arts, 2) Preparation of students for graduate work in psychology, and 3) Provision of courses for students in other divisions in the University. The major fields of concentration in the Division are elementary education, health and physical education, and psychology.

The Division of Humanities

Dr. Robert S. McGinnis, Jr.
Acting Division Chairman

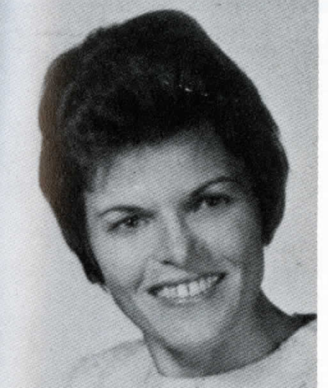

Try journalism — its great!

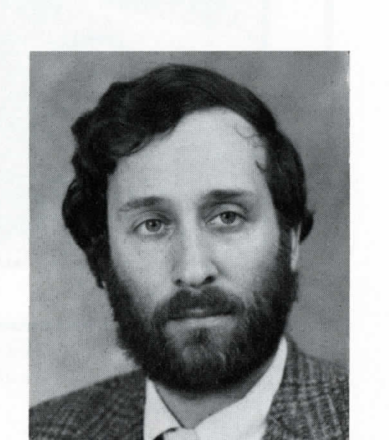

The Division of Humanities deals with our cultural life as expressed in literature and the arts. Major instructional fields in the division are: art, English, drama, foreign languages (French, German, Spanish), music, religion, philosophy, and speech. New offerings are designed to meet the interests and the problems of today's people.

The Division of Natural Sciences

Dr. William W. Sutton
Division Chairman

So you wanna be a Doctor!

The Division of the Natural Sciences offers majors in biology, chemistry, mathematics and physics. Divisional objectives are these: 1) Development of competence in the use of scientific methods of problem-solving; 2) Development of attitudes born of scientific method; 3) Development of, appreciation for, and interest in, the scientific aspects of modern civilization, and 4) Training of students in the more specialized branches of science preparatory to advanced or professional study.

The Division of Nursing

Mrs. Mervell L. Bracewell
Division Chairman

I'd like to be a nurse — Please!

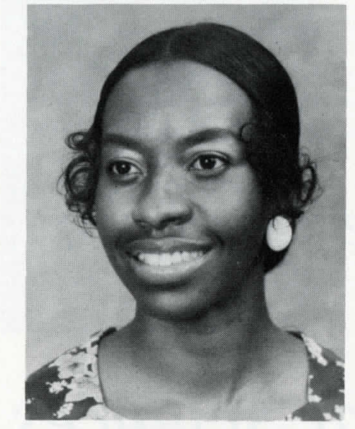

The Division of Nursing is a product of the pressing demand of nursing to meet the basic health problems of the entire nation. The curriculum is designed as a four-year nursing program, including work in the biological, physical and social sciences and the humanities. The Division prepares the students to function as a professional nurse in the beginning practice for nursing and health services to the individual, the family, in the hospital and in the community and to provide a foundation for continue self-development and graduate study.

Dr. Daniel C. Thompson
Division Chairman

We are at the crossroads!

In the Division of Social Sciences, courses are offered in three areas of concentration: economics and business administration; history and government; sociology and anthropolgy and social welfare.

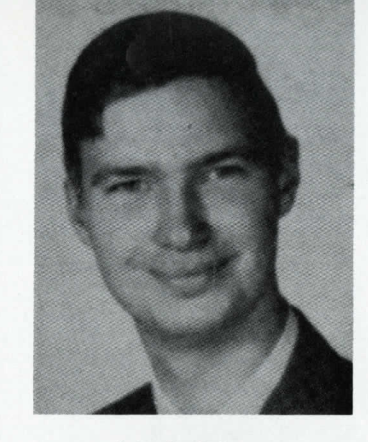

The division's general objectives are: 1) To assist the student in achieving the necessary knowledge for personal, social and vocational development; 2) To provide cultural background for the student whose major interest lie in other divisions; 3) To help the student develop the necessary tools of thought, drawing on both science and experience, to enable him to arrive at valid and usable judgments.

The Amistad Research Center is a privately supported, non-profit historical research library devoted to the collection and preservation of original source materials on America's ethnic minorities. Located on the Dillard University campus, the Center attracts scholars from across the nation and from abroad, who are reinterpreting the American experience by writing books, master's thesis and doctoral dissertations on black Americans and other ethnic groups. The basic philosophy for the establishment and maintenance of the Center is that this reinterpretation of American history will eventually reach textbooks from the elementary grades through college, and that its effect will be to give all Americans a better understanding of the contributions of minorities to our history, and, equally significant, change the self-image for those minorities who have suffered as the result of neglect and misinterpretation of their history in the past.

You are capable of adapting to adverse situations and submerging your ego (but only temporarily) to achieve long-range goals. You're all-in-all a very serious person working to get ahead, with little time for frivolity.

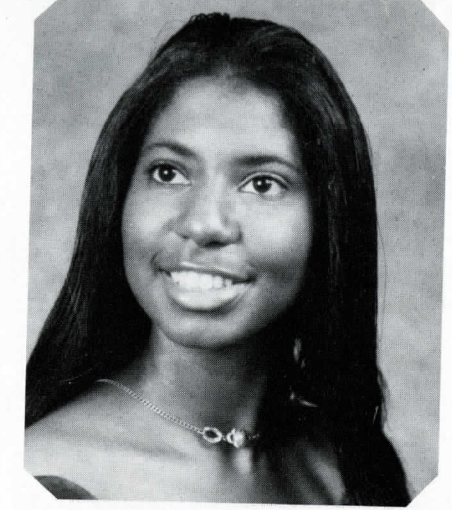

You're an excellent planner and you can carry a project through to the last detail.

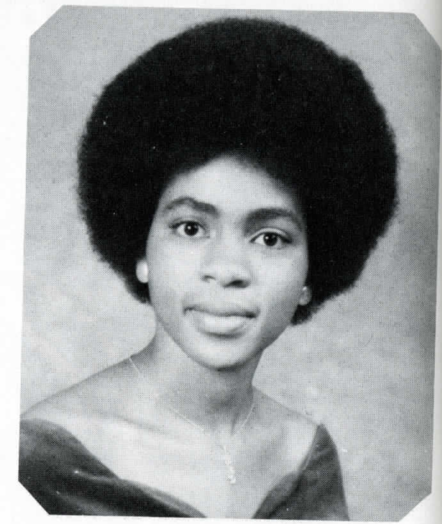

Although you are subject to moods, you are for the most part even tempered and emotionally steady. When opportunity knocks, you answer promptly.

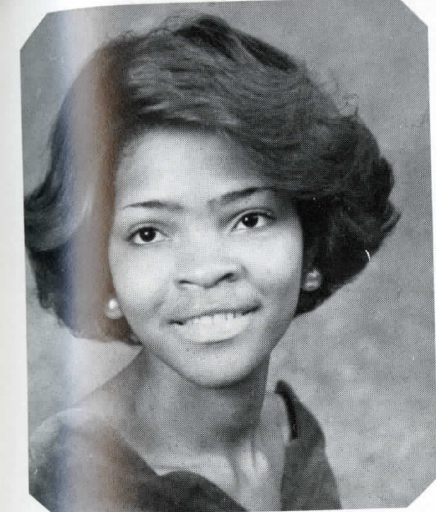

You are impressed with labels and price tags, but like to obtain quality items at sale prices.

Somber shades of grey and black suit you and you are most compatible with Taurus, Cancer, and Aries.

Persons born under this sign typically walk the fine line between genius and insanity. You are intelligent, original, and a natural experimenter. You have little respect for the traditional.

You are gregarious, but remain fiercely independent even in a crowd. You're willing to let others do their thing while you do yours. You have many friends, but few intimates.

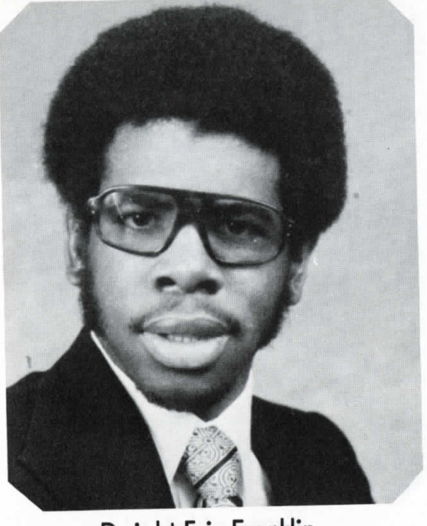

Libras, Leos and Ariens can appreciate your rather aloof air, but others may think of you as snobbish. Your best colors are silver, and electric blue.

You are a freedom-loving individual who avoids entanglements which would infringe on your freedom of movement and expression.

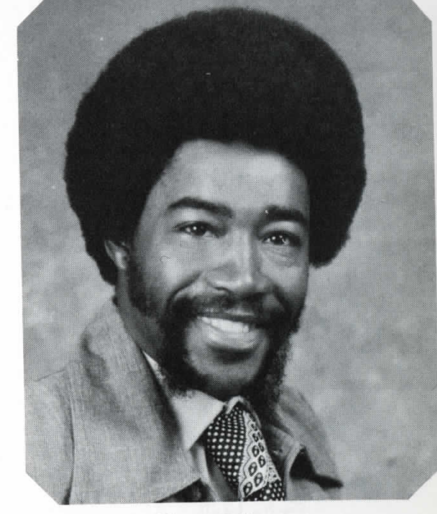

You're affectionate enough, but not overly-passionate.

Although aware of the ugly side of life, you prefer to view the world through rose-colored glasses. You are easy-going, indifferent to the opinions of others, and not easily aroused to violent action.

Fame and success appeal to you — but you approach it casually, and may try a number of careers before choosing one.

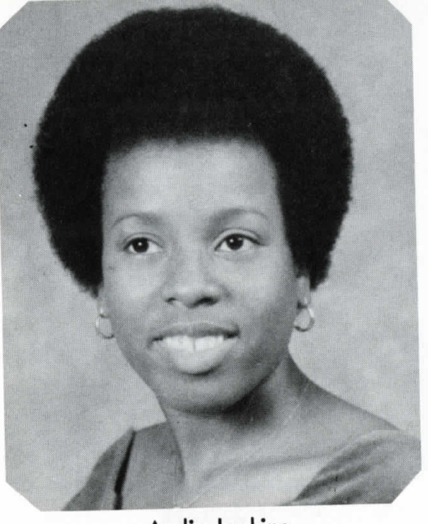

The field of social work appeals to the philanthropist in you; but with your cleverness and ability to concentrate on details, you could do well in literature or the arts.

You are the twelfth sign of the zodiac and a curious mixture of all the others. You have a sensitive and wise nature, and can put things in their proper perspective.

Your best colors are silver, white, and royal purple. Keep on helping others, and they will help you.

LEO July 24/August 23

You're a thoroughly charming Lion — arrogant, proud, playful, and determined to enjoy life. You manage to be the center of attention wherever you go.

You like to have others depend on you, but you're too proud to admit that you depend on them too.

You have a sense of drama, and you can meet any situation head-on with charm. This gives you the versatility to excel in many fields.

Your tendency to order others about, your frankness, and your audience-craving ego, can combine to rock the boat of friendship, but you can set everything straight with a smile.

You are most compatible with Aquarians, Ariens, and Libras. You tend to be careless about your health, and somewhat accident-prone. Dress yourself in gold, orange, yellow and brown, and watch your step.

VIRGO Aug. 24/Sept. 23

You're comfortable in intimate gatherings and you shy away from large crowds — understandable, considering you're born under the sign of the Virgin.

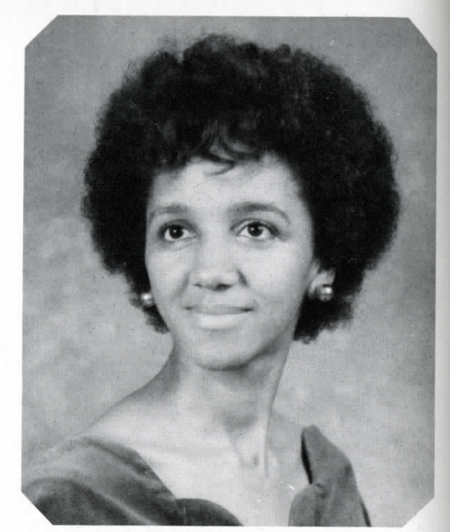

You are precise in what you do and you crave order. You can't stand dirt, sloppiness, misinformation, and wasted time. You have a practical mind and methodical nature, but you are capable of devastatingly clever comebacks.

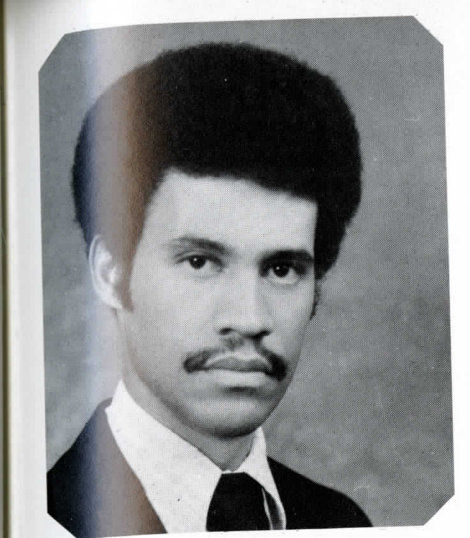

Small pets such as birds and cats find a friend in you. You are restless and quite fussy about your health. You're prone to digestive ailments, but you love spicey foods anyway.

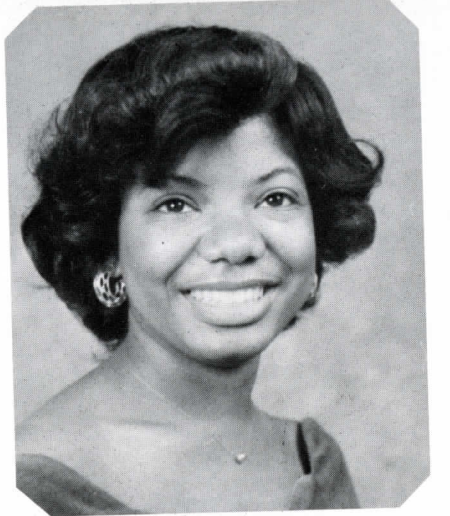

Your most compatible signs are Taurus and Pisces. To the person who succeeds in winning you, you make a faithful and intensely passionate loved one.

You who are born under the sign of the Bull bear up well under pressure, and you are slow to anger, but, like the Bull, if you're finally pressed to anger, you're well-equipped to destroy most anything within reach.

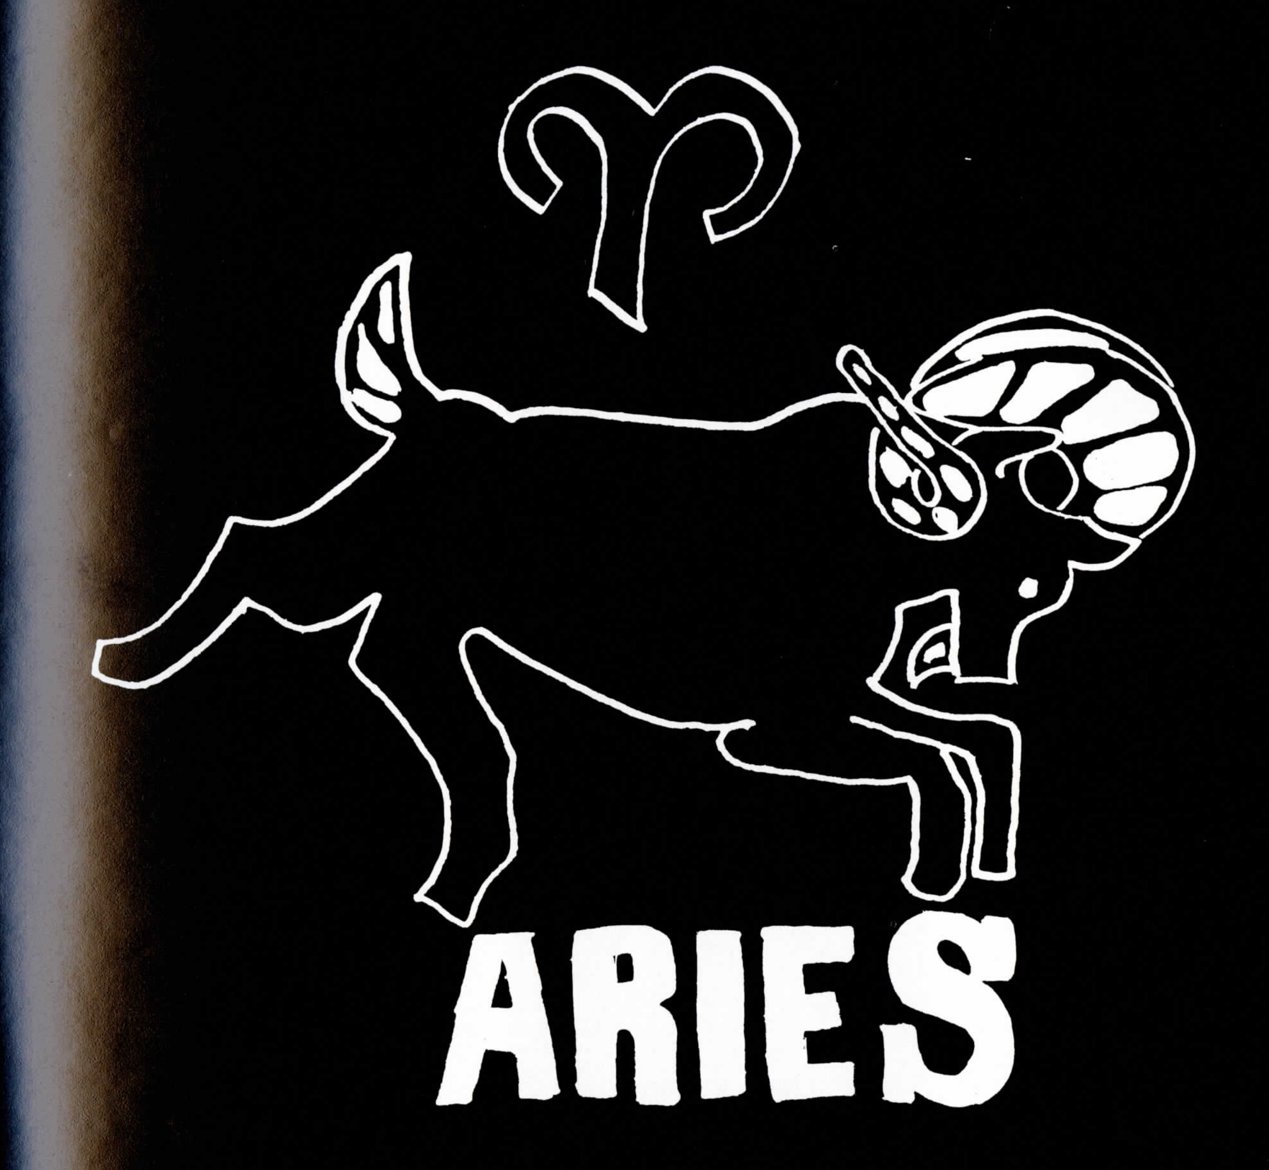

Your stubborn tendencies are obvious to everyone except yourself. You view your obstinance as firmness and your ideas as sensible, so you'll wait for others to come around to your way of thinking.

You're a domesticated being, an affectionate and protective parent and lover, and your family knows they can depend on you. You meet crises head-on, and deal with emotional stress easily.

Your practical approach to matters make you a born businessman, especially able to handle real estate and investments.

You appreciate the finer things in life, most particularly the opposite sex. Fiery reds and oranges are your best colors.

ARIES Mar. 21/Apr. 20

Having been born under the sign of the Ram, you champion the causes of the down-trodden and the underdog. You're not shy in voicing your opinions or letting your ego show.

You are a warm, compassionate person, but subject to flashes of violent temper. You're dynamic and love the fast life, and you get impatient with those who can't keep your pace.

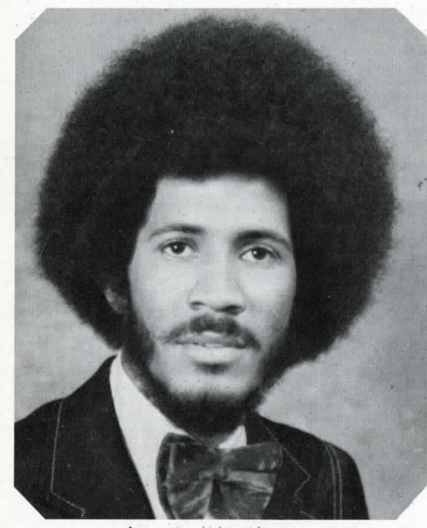

You're capable of overwhelming generosity to those who are good to you. You're idealistic and sentimental, and you'll find very compatible relationships with Libras, Geminis, and Leos.

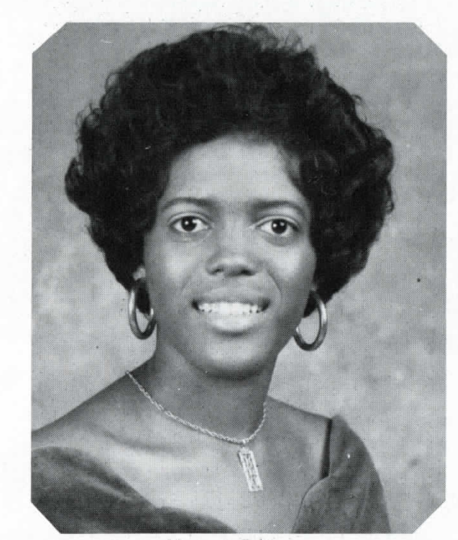

You are intelligent and determined, a born leader, and inclined toward the world of business or the creative arts. Scarlet is the best color to enhance your passionate nature.

You are an enigma, born under the sign of the Twins, and at times those around you feel that they're dealing with two individuals who just happen to share one body.

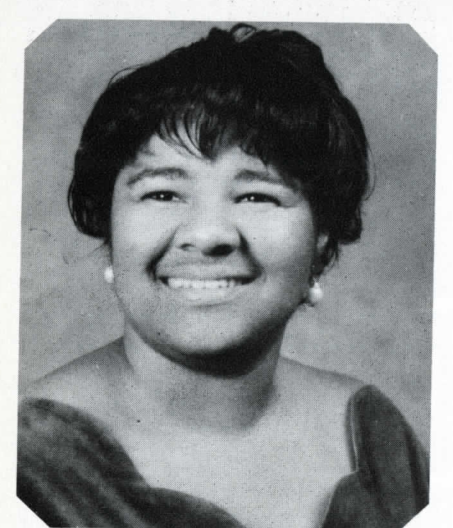

You run the gamut from mild restlessness to caprice. A fast talker, you are fascinated with language and gifted in written expression. Writing, advertising, and public relations careers appeal to you, as do nearly all aspects of the communications field.

Although you're capable of adjusting to virtually any situation and making the best of it, routine is not your bag.

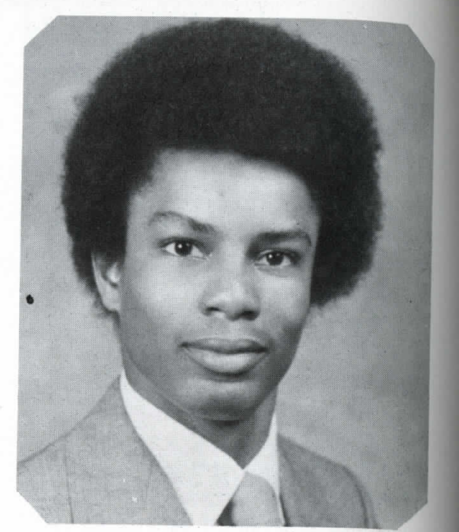

The ideal is your constant quest, but you may not recognize it when you find it.

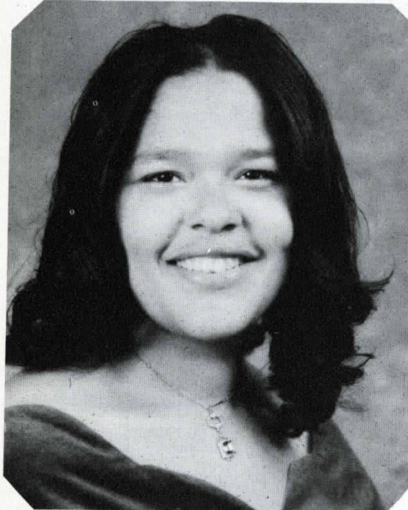

You are capable of intense passion, and can work wonders of persuasion with your charm. Look forward to compatible relationships with Sagittarians, Leos, and Ariens.

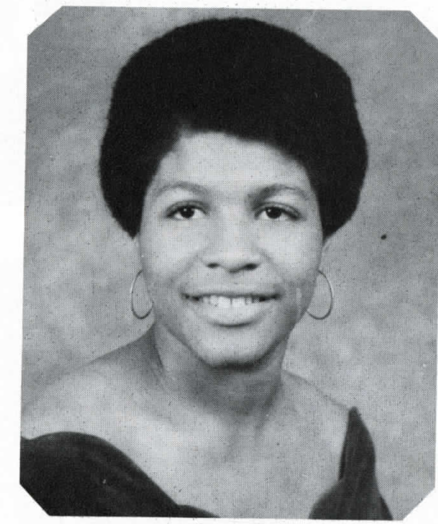

Blues and yellows look great on you.

You are a child of the moon, capable of both hilarious lunar laughter and deep melancholy. Some people can't cope with your moodiness, but you make a warm, sociable and sensitive companion to those who can.

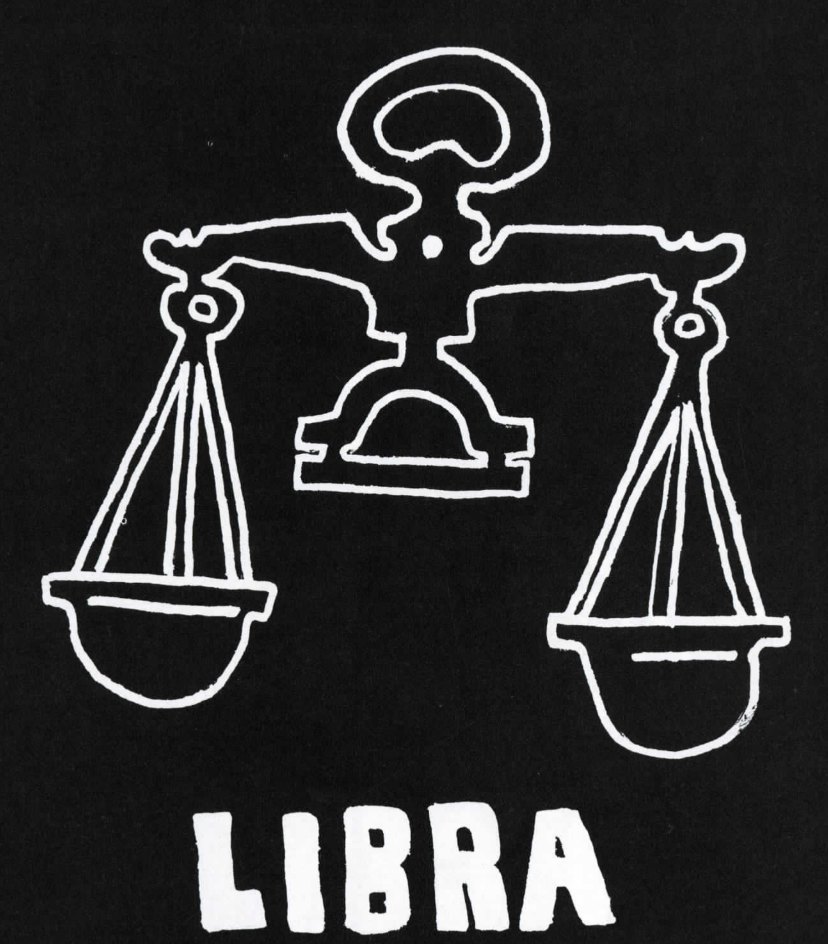

You inspire confidence in others — they'll tell you their deepest secrets. And yet you remain a mystery to even your closest friends.

Personal criticism or injury to your sensitive feelings bothers you intensely. Your sensitivity, coupled with your vivid imagination, makes you prey to psychosomatic illness — a haven for ulcers.

You crave emotional and financial security and have a deep appreciation of luxury. A secure home environment will make you comfortable and bring out your finer qualities.

You can handle money exceedingly well, and cool shades of green do wonders for you.

LIBRA Sept.24/Oct. 23

You Librans thrive on large crowds, and you love all kinds of people except those who give you orders.

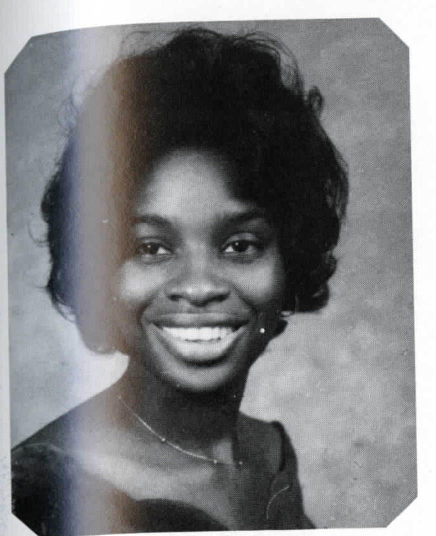

You're good-natured and pleasant, and you make an excellent confidant and listener. You carefully weigh all issues and you have exceptional powers of concentration, so your advice is better than most people's.

You can be charming or quarrelsome, cooperative or obstinate, but you manage to strike a happy medium most of the time.

You're logical and intelligent, you enjoy debate, and you can rationalize anything under the sun. You could be a good politician or statesman.

You crave harmony, especially in your home, and you get along best with Aquarians, Leos, and Sagittarians.

You are a born lover. Make the most of it.

SAGITTARIUS

Finding an example of this Sun sign is quite easy. Along with his tactless manner he is an extremely clever person with very high standards. His unique combination of wit, intelligence and fiery drive usually brings the archer straight to the winner's circle. Sagittarians are oblivious to their own blunt speech. They are truly convinced that they are the most diplomatic souls in the world.

Their physical characteristics aren't hard to learn. The features will be open and cheerful, inviting friendship and the exchange of ideas, and the movements will normally be rapid. The archers are either very tall and athletic looking or shorter than average, with strong, sturdy bodies.

Both the timid and the forceful ones will take a chance on love anytime. Sagittarians plunge into romance with reckless abandon, but they often stop short suddenly when marriage is mentioned.

These high-spirited Jupiter people seldom let life defeat them permanently. They believe that tomorrow will surely be better than yesterday, and today is pretty interesting.

SCORPIO Oct. 23/Nov. 21

SCORPIO

In the intellectual plane this sign signifies the generation of ideas. Most Scorpios write the large or long upper and lower loops because this sign is one of the most imaginative of all twelve signs. Scorpios learn quickly, and have a strong enjoyment of the senses. Many Scorpios have a long little finger, also showing this tendency of being emotionally expressive. This sign is also courteous, loyal, generous, and sympathetic, because of their strong feelings and deep emotional involvement with people around them.

This deep emotion and will often create a combination for the birth of inspired ideas, generally based upon intuition.

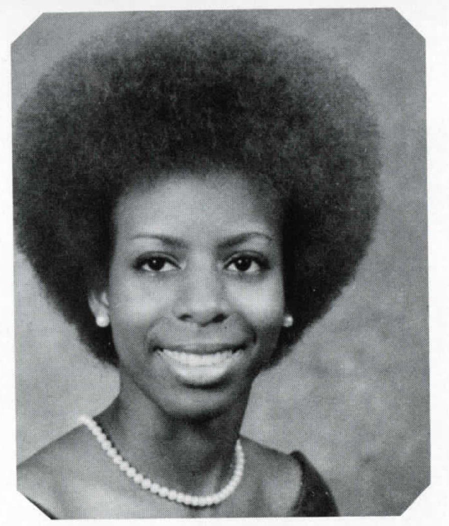

Love of mate often forms the outlet for the dynamic drive and power of Scorpio. In matters of romance they are affectionate, though aggressive; sympathetic, deep and passionate. In most cases they desire permanency in their relationships, and rarely forget a favor or a hurt.

The rightward slant of the handwriting shows impulsiveness, which affects all of the actions of Scorpio, and can also appear as impulsive spending.

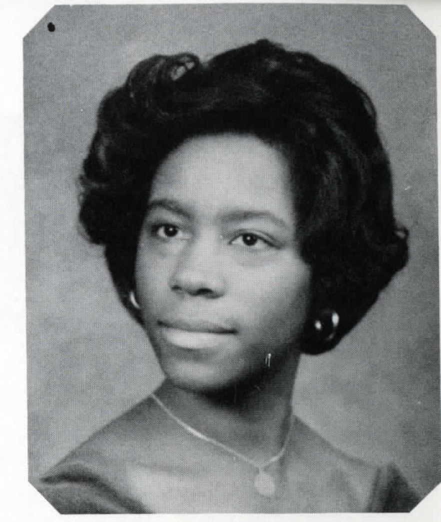

Your positive signs are: Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo and Libra.

Fair Dillard,

Gleaming White and Spacious Green,

We Love Thy Every Blade and Tree;

We Love Thy Breathless Days,

Thy Nights Serene,

Thy Halls

Were

Men Are Men

and

Free

Arise O Sons and Daughters, Hail Thy Queen,

And Pledge for Aye Thy Loyalty.

Fair Dillard

Flaming Love and Learning's Light

Teach Us Each Day, Each Passing Hour

A Deep'ning Love for Beauty, Truth and Right

Source of All Nobleness and Pow'r

And Through the Joyous Days, the Dreaded Night
